Dear family:

With thanks to all of you who supplied me with the needed data, enclosed is the 1999 update of our family geneology. Some of you might have grown weary of my "bugging" you, but I wanted to be sure I had gleaned all the information possible...to make the documentation accurate and up to date.

The project grows and grows, just as our family grows and grows! I wonder if Papa and Mama really had any idea what they were initiating when they began their family of twelve sons and daughters, way back in 1905!

This historical note on the internet caught my eye the other day..... "In August, 1883 (the very month and year our Mama was born), the eruption of Krakatoa (or Krakatau) volcano near Java created the loudest sound in history. Residents of Australia who heard the detonation 4,800 km away said it sounded like the distant roar of heavy guns. That's like an explosion in California being heard in New York!" Well, Mama and Papa couldn't match the decibels, but what they started spread all over the world.....just check out the address book....South America, Africa, England, Canada and 21 of our 50 States!

I hope you enjoy browsing through the historical sections. Thanks mostly to a cousin, Ruth Hancock, (great-granddaughter of Nellie (Newell) Baldwin, our mother's sister), a detailed lineage of Mama's ancestry is added. You can see her "Currier" background as well as the "Grow" and "Newell".

Time prevented me from exploring for any connection of Mama's "Currier" to the famous Currier and Ives, other than to find that the artist's name was Nathaniel Currier, a printer-publisher, born in Roxbury, Mass. on March 27, 1813. He was the son of Nathaniel and Hannah M. Currier. He had one son, Edward W. Currier, founder of lithograph in 1824, which became Currier & Ives in 1850. He died in 1888. Perhaps some of you would like to do further research!

As to accuracy, I have checked and double-checked data and spelling, but in a document this size, there is bound to be errors...typo's or data. If you find any, please let me know before you forget, so I can correct it in my computer. Also, as births, deaths, divorces, marriages occur, it would be great if you would send them to me, including full names, dates, and places. That way facts could be entered into the records contemporaneously.

As to the next update.....who knows. My dream is that one of you younger members of the tribe would like to take it on. I could give that person a floppy disk with all the data on it. My memory and concentration is not what it used to be, and this kind of stuff needs detail concentration.

One more tid-bit... Did you know that our ancestor Conrad Iler (who immigrated to the United States from Germany) is listed on the bronze Immigrant Wall that borders Ellis Island in New York Harbor? Our cousin Robert Iler, a geneologist, is responsible for this.

One final note of appreciation...to my husband Dwight, for his patient endurance while I worked on this project over the past few months.

With my love....

Mom, Sister, Aunt, Great-aunt, or Great-great-aunt... Flo.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE EILER, EILAR, EYLER, ILER, OYLER FAMILIES

(Excerpts taken from book written by John S. Eilar, D.D.S., of Albuquerque, New Mexico, in his Genealogy History written in 1973)

"In writing this history I have endeavored not to make it a compilation of statistical data of the family but rather give interesting facts of the members, wherever possible...

Perhaps one of the most rewarding results, other than finding ancestors and members of the family, was the gaining of historical knowledge. To understand the immigration to this country, the background and history was studied of the part of Germany in which the family originated and lived. Historical facts and conditions existing in this country which were responsible for the migrations was also a study.

One writer remarks that "...the early German settlers had itchy feet" and wanted to migrate. This seems to be true of our ancestors as well as many others. Being primarily farmers and lovers of the soil, wanting to find a home where they could provide for their families and worship as they believed, they pushed forward into the back woods whenever new land was opened for settlement. In many cases they moved into the new country before the land was opened.

In following the new frontiers as this country moved westward we find the German farmer in the forward line. From Philadelphia to the land beyond the Susquahanna and western Maryland, Ontario (Canada), into Illinois, Nebraska and Kansas our families pushed forward, clearing land for cultivation, establishing settlements and building churches and schools. Truly we are descendants of pious, family devoted, pioneering ancestors.

The family in the first four generations, in this country, were primarily farmers and tradesman. Since that time it seems most have left the good earth endeavors and are now found in the professions, the clergy, scientists, teachers, business administrators, as well as various other occupations and business endeavors.

THE FAMILY NAME

The various ways the family name has been spelled, especially in the early years in America, has made the search for our line very difficult. Not only the spelling of the family name has caused much confusion, but given names handed down through two, three and four generations, combined with the change of family name spelling has made it difficult to separate the different branches and families.

Variants of the name found in the records of our family and in this history are: Eiler; Eilar; Euler; Eyler; Ilar; Iler; Iller; Oiler; Oiller; Ouler; Oyler; Oylar; Oilar.

Our family name is of German origin. In the early years of searching for information of the family, I was of the opinion that the original name was EULER but pronounced OILER or OYLER. I did find one family spelling the name EULER but pronounced ULER.

Corresponding with Professor H.V. Euler, a professor in the University of Stockholm, Sweden, I was referred to his son, Sten von Euler, Consul for Sweden in Chicago, Illinois. He states in his letter, "The first known member of my family settled down in Basel, Switzerland in 1594, coming from Lindau in Bavaria, however, one branch had spread to Germany."

The name EULER is one indicating a profession: in elderly German it means "potter". It is, therefore, not astonishing that there are many families with that name. The sphere where the name was originally used embraced, to my knowledge, mainly southern Germany and adjacent territories- The Palatinates; Hessen; Switzerland, etc. It has been suggested that Hessen was the very center where the name was taken up to use, but firm evidence thereof is of course hard to bring.

It is evident that when the family first took the name, it was from their occupation and the name was EULER. However, as our branch migrated down the Rhine River farther into Germany they took the name of EILER. In the German language there is a verb "eilen"-- to hasten. The noun is "eile" --speed, or haste. Perhaps one of the Euler pottery makers developed some speed with his work and became an EILER, one who hurries. a hustler.

Perhaps the two greatest controversies within the family was religion and the spelling of the family name. The family has remained Protestant in all the branches. Perhaps the most predominant denominations are the Brethren and Lutheran.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE EILER, EILAR, EYLER, ILER, OYLER FAMILIES

(Excerpts taken from book written by John S. Eilar, D.D.S., of Albuquerque, New Mexico, in his Genealogy History written in 1973)

The spelling of the family name has been brought about by our people trying to Americanize the name and yet give the sounding of the original German name. This in some instances has been done on the advise of school teachers. Those effected who felt the name had the sound of "I", descended into Eiler, Eilar, Eyler and Iler. Those who felt the name should have the "Oi or Oy sound of the German spelling EULER descended into the OYLER family.

One of my earlier trips to Pennsylvania, and the area in which the family first settled, I was accompanied by Mr. William Oyler of Arendtsville in search for the Valentine Eyler farm which was inherited by his son Jacob. When we reached the area in which Mr. Oyler thought the farm was located I inquired of an elderly German descent farmer for the old Jacob Eyler farm. Pointing to a house and barn a short distance down the road he said, "dat is de ol Jacob Oyler farm." I replied, "It is the old Jacob Eiler farm we are looking for." His reply, "Yah, dats de ol Jacob Eiler farm." I learned then that the early German people of that community used the Oi, Oy, Ei and Ey interchangeably when speaking of the same person.

In the Samuel Eiler family, son of Valentine and Susanna Culp (also KULP) the two older sons retained the spelling of EILER. The three younger sons changed the spelling of EILAR. I was told that this change caused some strained relations in the family at that time.

WHY WE CAME TO AMERICA

To understand why our family as well and thousands of other German families came to America one has only to read the history of Europe, especially of Germany in the century preceeding our immigration. To us living in the twentieth century it is almost unbelievable and inconceivable that such conditions could exist. Yet history has recorded this era and even the recordings which tend to be lenient make one shudder and rejoice to know that we come from an ancestry of pious and noble peasant farmers.

During the thirty year war, 1618 to 1648, when dishonesty, intrigue, and persecution were practiced by the ruling Hierarchy and statesmen, a generation lived and was born. The Rhine river valley of Germany became the center of warfare and the pious people of this area suffered the horrors and persecution of State and Church conflicts.

When the thirty year war closed with the Treaty of Westphalia, or Munster, Germany, so far as the peasant farmer was concerned in religion and a betterment of life in the Rhine valley was little improved. One historian says the war accomplished nothing. "With the wars of Frederick, 1620-1688, and the French Wars, the Rhine valley was devastated, farm land laid to waste, the peoples' crops and livestock confiscated, religious persecution, both by state and church made life for the peasant farmer unbearable. Yet living under these conditions they proved themselves untouchable in their convictions and many lived to see a brighter day in their new home, America".

It is quite understandable why these people who had disavowed the Catholic Church, had suffered through a century of war, would set up the principles of a church of protestant faith and become a war-hating people and inculcate in their principles the non-bearing of arms. In fact, they became so incensed against force that infant baptism was not to be tolerated, but rather, anyone becoming a member did so of his, or her, own free will. With the close of these wars the people of the Rhine Valley began interpreting the Bible as they understood it.

From this all sorts of religious organization began to appear. Many leaders sprang up, groups gathered and discussed the Bible and their interpretations were inculcated in the principles of their church. In fact, during the later part of the 17th century and the first half of the 18th century protestant factions persecuted other protestant factions when it was within their power to do so. Living first under a Catholic Ruler, then protestant, then one tolerant to all, the spiritual and human life of these people was in great confusion. Through all of this the true convictions of a sturdy people was not swerved and they stayed with their convictions to carry them to a new land.

From this era sprang the Mennonites, the Schwenkfelders, the Pietist, the Mystics, the Taufers (German Baptist), the Lutherans, the Reformed and the Brethren.

It is little wonder that when William Penn, a peace loving English Quaker made a trip up the Rhine in 1672 and again in 1678, preaching brotherly love and forbearance that these people turned to him, and with him, to come to Pennsylvania in America where they could farm a virgin soil and worship according to their dictates."

LINEAGE OF CAREY WILLIAM ILER

CAREY WILLIAM ILER was born January 5, 1868 in Iler Settlement, Grosfield South, Essex County, Ontario, Canada, on the north shores of Lake Erie. Carey was first married to Nellie Maybee, in 1890. His first pastorate as a Baptist Minister was in 1892, in Blenheim, Ontario, Canada. Nellie's health was poor (tuberculosis), and doctors advised moving to a warmer, drier climate. They moved to California in 1898. His first church in California was in Fullerton. As his wife's health deteriorated, he moved to Banning, and took a church there. She died soon after. There were no children from this marriage.

Carey William Iler took a church in Los Angeles, then a church in Whittier, where a Hattie May Newell attended. Hattie (called "Mamie" by some of her cousins) graduated from Whittier High School in 1901, and then attended Whittier College. She and Carey were married on November 24, 1904 in Long Beach, California. Their honeymoon was spent on Santa Catalina Island, off the coast of Southern California. The minister who married them, Rev. Petty, and his wife accompanied them.

Papa was a pastor in several churches; South Pasadena, Bishop, Huntington Park, and Gardena before exiting the formal ministry. He then became a carpenter, a pattern-maker, a farmer, and a lay-minister in the Plymouth Brethren churches, better known as the Gospel Halls in Southern California and in Clovis area. During those years he and Mama had twelve children, listed later. Papa died on April 1, 1952 at the age of 84 years. He is buried in the Pomona Cemetery, Pomona, California.

The first of these is the fact that the American Medical Association has been successful in securing the passage of the Federal Food and Drug Act, which is a landmark in the history of the regulation of the food and drug industry. This act is a comprehensive one, covering the entire field of food and drug regulation, and is a model of what a well-considered and carefully drafted law should be. It is a credit to the American Medical Association that it has been able to secure the passage of such a law, and it is a credit to the American people that they have been able to secure such a law.

VII. HELEN MYRTLE ILER - Born June 4, 1916....Died June 12, 1918, Gardena, Ca.

(The following was written by John Francis Iler, as he reminisced the day that Helen Myrtle went to Heaven.)

"Helen Myrtle. My little sister who died of osteomyelitis when two years old. I was four at the time.

We were close friends. I would stand in front of her highchair and stretch my mouth and eyes with my fingers and she would laugh and crow delightedly. She would reach out and swat my face, not hard like my grandfather did when I was afraid of the handcar, but affectionately with her pudgy little hand. We played for hours, with me clowning and her laughing. I loved her."

But as often is the case, my love was mixed with hatred, for she had usurped my place on my mother's lap. When I came in from the back yard with my spirit wounded, needing the solace of my mother's lap, she would be there ahead of me, crowing derisively. On those occasions I hated her deeply.

One day there was a pall of gloom inside the house. I came in from the back yard at lunch time. The kitchen was empty. I peeked into the front room. Helen was not there. My mother was not there. Relatives and strangers that I hated were in there, talking in hushed voices.

I returned to the kitchen and cut a thick slice of bread, purposely cutting it crooked. I spooned heaps of jam on it, so that it dripped on the table. I ate it, poured a glass of milk, purposely letting it run over. Then I went outside, purposely leaving the jam and milk on the table where the flies could get to them.

In the yard I carefully put one foot in front of the other, moving across the yard, leaving a straight line of footprints in the thick dust. On the way I purposely stepped on two chicken droppings. I looked around and decided to talk to a chicken. There were big red chickens, big black and white chickens, and one huge chicken with a big chest and a long tail. I never talked to that one. It was fierce and always wanted to fight. I chose a red chicken. It was ruffling its feathers in the dust. As I sat down in front of it, it tilted its head and looked at me with one yellow-rimmed eye. It knew me. I said, "Hey, chicken, how come you dirty in the yard? When I dirty in the yard my grandpa swats me on the head. How come my grandpa don't swat you on the head?"

The chicken tipped its head to one side and then the other, looking at me with one startled eye and then the other. Then it decided to ignore the question. It began rooting its beak among its feathers.

I lay on my back and looked at the green top of the pepper tree swaying in the afternoon breeze. Little white clouds passed by overhead. As I gazed it seemed at times that the little clouds were standing still, and that the pepper tree and I were moving along gently. I stared for a long time.

I climbed through the hole in the fence, following my well-beaten little path down into the gully, then up onto the railroad embankment. I carefully looked both ways. No handcar was coming. I put my ear on the cold rail. Faintly I could hear a freight train many miles away. I listened for a long time, looking up nervously now and then. Handcars had a way of sneaking up on you. Overhead the wires hummed like a harmonica chord.

At sundown I went back into the house. The kitchen was shadowed and empty. I peeked into the front room. The gloom was still there. Relatives and strangers that I hated were still there. A strange man was talking to my father. He took a silver thing from around his neck and put it into a black bag, shaking his head. My father looked very sad. My older brothers and sisters were sitting quietly. They looked scared.

The kitchen was getting dark. I sat on the floor in a dark corner by the sink. I pulled my knees up tightly to my chin and began to cry.

There was a place where the grass was smooth and green. There was a mound with a kind of green blanket on it, and a fancy box with flowers around it. All my family except Helen were sitting on chairs. Relatives and strangers that I hated stood around behind us. Helen was not there. I was mad because they wouldn't let me sit by my mother.

My mother sat across from me. Her back was very straight and she leaned forward slightly. Her thumb and forefinger were stretched across her forehead so that her hand shaded her face. She was crying, not out loud like I always cried, but only with tears. With alarm I looked around for my grandfather. I had a sudden fear that he might go over and swat my mother on the head, like he always swatted me on the head when I cried when I was afraid of the handcar. I located my grandfather, but he was crying too. I was bewildered.

V11. HELEN MYRTLE ILER - Born June 4, 1916....Died June 12, 1918, Gardena, Ca.

A strange man with a book in his hand began to talk. Looking up into the sky he said words like "green pastures" and "still waters" and "heaven". They were soothing words and I began to feel better.

The next morning I began to pound on my mother's and father's bedroom door. My brothers and sisters jumped on me and dragged me into the kitchen. I began to kick and scream. After a while my sister made me some mush. She made it lumpy but let me put all the sugar on it I wanted. All that day I tried various stratagems to get near my mother, but my brothers and sisters were always on guard. I got a big box and put it under her window, and was climbing onto it when my biggest brother caught me. Tenderly he carried me and the box and put us down gently in the back yard. I ducked, but he didn't even try to swat me. He was acting strangely.

After supper I lay on my stomach on the ground between the Calla Lilies by the front porch. I felt deserted and forsaken. I was thinking of getting on the railroad track and running and running and never coming back. But I might meet a handcar.

Then just after the sun went down a great miracle happened. My mother came out and sat in the rocking chair on the front porch. Like a small tiger I scrambled onto the porch and leaped into her lap. I put my arms around her neck and squeezed and squeezed and buried my face in under her chin. My father opened the screen door, pronouncing my name sternly. My mother shook her head over her shoulder and he closed the door.

I could feel the contentment seeping into my wounded spirit. I didn't even object to her high-collared shirt. I preferred putting my face against her bare, comforting skin, but I could feel her warmth through her shirt and was happy.

In the twilight my mother's face looked gray and sick. I wanted desperately to say something that would take away the sickness.

"Mama, what is heaven?"

"Heaven is where little Helen is now, dear."

"What is heaven like?"

"There is no sickness there, no sorrow, no pain, no tears."

"Will Helen come back?"

"No, dear, she will wait for us there."

My heart leaped with joy. Now my mother's lap was my own private property again. But one thing about heaven had to be cleared up.

"Mama, are there any handcars in heaven?"

My mother laughed and gave me a quick squeeze.

"No, dear, there are no handcars in heaven."

Now in the pale light she was smiling and the sickness was gone and her face was more beautiful than all the waving trees, the sunrises, the sunsets, the high fleecy summer clouds, the harmonica music, the Christmas toys, the freight trains, the flowers, the new crayons, the taste of cherries, the mockingbird songs, the Delaware Punch, the licorice, the laughter of Helen Myrtle. When my mother smiled she was more beautiful than all these put together."

(Several years ago brother Juddie and his daughter Marie Meil went to visit the Whittier Cemetery, where Helen Myrtle had been interred in 1918. Finding a park only, they went to the city of Whittier where they were given the following data: after 50 years of no burials, it is a city ordinance that the cemetery can be made into a Memorial Park. Thus, came into being the Founders' Memorial Park. There is a large monument with names engraved in bronze. Listed on this monument are the names of Helen (Myrtle) Iler, Nellie Aileen Iler (Papa's 1st. wife), Richard Iler (Papa's father), and Catherine Iler (Papa's mother). At the foot of the monument it says, "IN MEMORY OF THOSE INTERRED 1870-1939". In the early 1990's, Juddie, Ruth, Dwight and myself visited this lovely place and took pictures of the monument and park.)

Subject: Re: OILER SURNAME

Brenda, I am copying my cousin Curt's letter to another Oyler researcher. He has put a lot of time in on the Oylers and rather than me trying to rewrite the information, ...This note was in response to a query I had forwarded him last year, from Pam.

Byron, I am not trying to sell the book he is writting. I am going to buy it, as I have known Miriam for all of my 47 years, and I know how hard she has worked on it and I know what pictures are going to be inculded, but I am not trying to sell it for him.

Let me know if we have a connection

Byron

Byron, Pam and Mark,

I, I am Curt Gamble. My wife Carol and I are retired and live near Durango, Co. I retired 4 + years ago as a computer network engineer at a fortune 15 company. We have been researching the Oyler lineage for about a 15 years and will be going to press with a very thick book early next year. Actually Carol and I have picked up the research of Miriam Redricks about 10 years ago and have endeavored to bring all the lines down to the current generation. Miriam is the 6 year old cousin of Byron and Carol. She has been researching the Oyler lineage and associated lines since the 1930's. When Miriam was just a little girl she knew our Sarah Wissinger, Henry Oyler's wife.

Just a word of caution! There is a major line of Oylers possibly derived from Eyler's from the Lancaster, PA area that worked their way into Ohio and into Indiana the same time as Byron and Carol's Oyler ancestors. I find them on census and tax lists living sometimes in the same counties and townships. This is the Valentine Oyler line of Pennsylvania that migrated to Ohio and Indiana. This is NOT our Oyler line and is a sore point with Miriam, Carol and I. The reason is a couple of cousins from our other branches tried to tie us into the Valentine line when all the primary records indicate that linkage is dead wrong. These cousins are now deceased and had no proof of the Valentine Oyler linkage. They insisted on acting like they had proof but when you asked for the proof they got mad as you know what. Anyway I'm sorry I had to vent my frustrations on that topic but did so for educational reasons.

Research Techniques

In trying to trace our Oyler origins, a genealogist researcher has to start with records that prove a location and a time as a starting point. Jacob Oyler, the earliest Oyler we can prove with primary records, was the husband of Elizabeth Fifer and the father of 11 children including our Henry L. Oyler. Jacob is found in the Jessamine County, Kentucky 1810-1828 tax records.

One must realize that persons who collected the information for census and tax records were of many different nationalities and usually spelled phonetically. While spelling variations were very common in the early days in the history of our country the spelling changed from record to record and between counties and periods of time. This has caused many problems today for genealogists tracing the migration of a given ancestor. The spellings as they appear in the various records are used in this document to reflect the variations in phonetic spelling during those early times. The closer to the frontier these ancestors were the more unstable were the Oyler spellings. When records during these early times were being researched all known variants were noted and recorded.

The following variants of the Oyler name can be found in the Genealogical Reports for the Historical Society of York Co., Pennsylvania, by Edith Beard Cannon in the Elyer-Oyler Report.

Oyler	Eular	Iller	Oiler	Oyler
Galer	Eyler	Isler	Oisler*	Oylor
Chler	Eyler	Oehler	Oler	Uhler
Gilar	Eylor	Oeler	Olier*	Uler
Giler	Ihler	Oeller	Ouler	Uley
Eley	Iler	Ohler	Owler	Uller

The names above are the ones that we found in our research in Kentucky and North Carolina. The * indicates additional spelling variants found that were not in Edith Cannon's report.

Facilities researched were the Kentucky State Archives in Frankfort, Ky, the National Archives in Washington, DC, the North Carolina Archives in Raleigh, North Carolina, the Allen County Genealogy Library in Ft Wayne, Indiana, the Cincinnati Public Library in Cincinnati, Ohio, and the Mormon Library in Salt Lake City, Utah. Various county libraries including Garrard and Jessamine Counties in Kentucky and Lincoln County in North Carolina were researched. These above mentioned facilities were used for the early record research and do not reflect additional record depositories used for other or later sections of the book.

ck to real time:

have found cases where in the colony of North Carolina (pre revolution) the same person was named Oiler and Iler. There are indications that maybe they may have come down from Lancaster Co. so there might be a relationship with the Lancaster Oyler (Oiler) Eylers way back.

Jacob Oyler lived in Jessamine Co. Ky and he is on the tax list next to a John Oyler and real close on the list to his father-in-law Jacob Fifer. Jacob Fifer was a Revolutionary War soldier with lots of documentation regarding requests for a pension.

Now for Mark and Pam. Here are the pertinent lines of our Oyler lineage.

²¹⁷⁴⁵ Jacob Oyler b 17 May 1791 in North Carolina and Elizabeth Fifer (Phifer) born 26 Feb. 1792 North Carolina had 11 children as follows

. Joshua Oyler	b 1820 Jessamine Co. Ky	married Susan Urmey in 1842
. John G. Oyler	b 1822 Jessamine Co Ky	married Mary Shreves in 1843
. Jacob F. Oyler	b 1824 Jessamine Co. Ky	married Rachel Ann Williams moved to Missouri
. Catherine Oyler	b 1825 Jessamine Co. Ky	married Joseph Ney 1842
. Joseph L. Oyler	b 1826 Jessamine Co. Ky	married Susan Erbaugh
. James W. Oyler	b 1827 last known address was Darke Co. Ohio in 1850 census
. Susan Oyler	b 1828 possibly in Montgomery Co. Ohio	married Weaver moved to Missouri
. Elizabeth Oyler	b 1829 Montgomery Co. Ohio	married David Long
. Mary Jane Oyler	b. 1831 Montgomery Co. Ohio	married Daniel Turner
. Charity Ellen Oyler	b 1833 in Montgomery Co. Ohio	married Hiram S. Holt
. Henry L. Oyler	b 1834 in Montgomery Co. Ohio	married Sarah Ann Wissinger

LR00 FAMILY

these 11 children

John G Oyler	lived in Darke Co. Ohio
Jacob F.	lived in Grundy Co Missouri. This family has annual reunions & we have attended several.
Joseph L. Oyler	lived in Miami County Indiana
James Oyler	seemed to disappear after 1850.
Susan Oyler	married a Weaver and lived in Missouri but research indicates she might have lived out her remaining life back in Montgomery Co. Ohio.
Henry L. Oyler	lived in Miami Co. Indiana

The rest lived in Montgomery Co. Ohio area.

²¹⁹²³ Henry Oyler and Sarah Wissinger Oyler had 14 children

Alice Catherine Oyler	married a Charles Webb
Elizabeth Ellen Oyler	married a Edwin Massey
Frederick Johnson Oyler	married a Sarah Margaret Webb
Mary Jane Oyler	married a Charles Edwards
Sarah Francis Oyler	married a Levi Wolf
Annah Adaline Oyler	b & d 1870
Niel Elmer Oyler	b 1871 and died 1917
Becca Alice Oyler	married a Henry Orpurt (Miriam's mother)
William Henry Oyler	married a Clara May Eberle (Byron's great grandfather)
Chel Elma Oyler	b 1877 died 1895 (reason will be hidden in book)
Earl Mae Oyler	married Jacob Klise
Jacob Edwin Oyler	married Edith Shaffer in 1918
Grace Oyler	married Rollie Gilbert (Carol's grandmother)
Georgia Inez Oyler	married Larkin Lees

46414 - LR007D

These children of Henry and Sarah for the most part were in the Peru, Miami Co. Indiana area.

These above two generations of families are in the book in as complete and accurate manner as possible. There are several thousand in these lineages in my genealogy database and the book.

This whole line is eligible for membership in the DAR or SAR via Jacob Fifer's Revolutionary War service. Carol, Miriam and a deceased uncle, Merrill Gilbert were the only ones who took advantage of DAR/SAR.

Used to live in Cincinnati and there was an Oyler line there that came from England. It is possible the Oyler line in New York might be English.

Our Oyler line is German and probably went by the spelling Oehler until it was anglicized around the 1790's or 1800's. We have looked at ships records for Oehlers, Oylers, Ellers, Eylers etc and drew no conclusions as to who was who.

Much research has been undertaken trying to prove the linkage between our Jacob Oiler and John Oiler who were next to each other on the Jessamine Co. tax list. So far we have not been able to prove they were related tho they surely must have been.

As you can see our Oylers were in North Carolina before the Revolution and after, then Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana and Missouri to name a few states. However I find during the same early time period other Oylers/Oilers in Virginia, North Carolina and Kentucky that are not in our lines at least as far as we know. After the book is done we will probably further pursue research on these lines. Our goal is to finish the book while Miriam is still alive. Miriam wants this happen too before she meets her maker.

Hope this was educational and helpful and sorry for the length of this message. I know Byron will find it useful. For complete details buy the book. Have a good day and good luck on your research.

The Annual Eilar Clan Thanksgiving Reunion

The Eilar clan and friends met at the Henry County Memorial Park , W. G. Smith Auditorium Saturday, November 13th . For many generations this family tradition has prevailed. It bonds the past to the present and pays tribute to family and friends. The theme this year was Thanksgiving – a tribute to our country.

The Eilers are descendants of German origin. Conrad Iller came to Philadelphia on the ship Allen September 11, 1729, after a 70 day trip from Rotterdam, Holland. He brought with him his 4 daughters and 2 sons, Jacob and Valentine. Descendants of both brothers were present at this reunion –Iler and Eilar.

Dixie Ford welcomed the group and introduced Music Director, Bob Iler of Royal Oak, MI, and organist, Wayne Mitter of Bloomington, IN.

The Pledge of Allegiance was given by the children and then the whole group in unison. They all sang "My Country 'Tis of Thee"; and, the family traditional Thanksgiving song, "Over the River and Through the Wood".

Eugene Dickerson was introduced and asked to carve the turkey while the program continued.

Dixie Ford announced the year 2000 Reunion will be held, Saturday Nov. 4th in the same location. The November birthdays were recognized and given a birthday cake. Herbert Clapp presented the treasurer's report. Annie Lindley distributed The Eilar Reunion Calendar of the Year 2000, that she had assembled. The Who's Who in the family tree, contained history, dates and pictures of the nine children of Samuel George and Alpha Lenora (Pressel) Eilar family.

Committee chairperson's were introduced. Don Lindley, Greeter; Dixie Ford and Frances Clapp Chairpersons; Herbert Clapp, Treasurer; The Danny Collins family, Decoration Committee; Joy Constantino, Photographer; and Set-up Chairman Calvin Yockey, and committee, Keith, Kevin, and Buford Yockey and David and Kameron Ford. Annie Lindley, Year 2000 Calendar.

The traditional Thanksgiving Prayer was offered by Frances Clapp, followed by the buffet. After dinner activities included a Sing-Along with Wayne Mitter; Genealogist Morgan Iler provided information about family ancestry and charted the family tree; family video tapes shown; and , children and families enjoyed the pleasures of Memorial Park.

Those in attendance from out of state were: Morgan B. Iler, Omaha, NE; Robert L. Iler, Royal Oak, MI; Helen Eilar, New Carlisle, OH; Joy Constantino, Reston, VA; Dorothy Stockley (guest), Washington D.C.; Michael and Jennifer Lindley and daughter Shelby and Annie Laurie, Hawesville, KY; Donald and Annie Lindley, Owensboro, KY; and, Patrick and Sara Jones and sons Lucus, Chad and Kyle, Watertown, MN.

Eilar Reunion History

The Samuel and Alpha Lenora Eilar Reunions date back to the early years when the family lived on the old Pressel farm, near New Lisbon, also known as "Jim Town". Family and close friends gathered on Thanksgiving Day to renew fellowship, feast and give thanks for the year's bountiful harvest and God's blessings. The men folks, at dawn, hunted wild turkey and rabbits for the dinner preparations. The last recollection of this event was in 1958 (see photo below). The New Castle Courier Times newspaper often featured the reunions in the traditional Thanksgiving issues. The photo below was taken for that reason. The family added the November Birthday Celebration of family and friends in the early 1970's, in honor of Alpha Lenora's birthday.

A frequent guest, and entertainer, of the annual events was Ronald Eilar (son of Augustus, Samuel's brother). Ronald was an accomplished pianist and poet. Ronald and his wife, Lorene Reese, were married on September 13, 1933. Their daughter, Rheta Jerene Eilar, married Richard Land in 1952. They had four children: Tresa, Richard, De Layne, and Ronald. Most of the family reside in the Hagerstown/New Lisbon, IN area. 11905 11846 49369 11903 49367 49368 11909

As the attendance of the reunions grew to six generations, the decision was made, in 1989, to change the meeting date to the first or second Saturday in November. From 1988-1990, the reunions were hosted by Dr. Norman Eilar and wife Helen in New Carlisle, Ohio. As the Thanksgiving tradition still prevails today, it bonds the past to the present and pays tribute to our family and friends. The Eilar Reunion Motto remains: EVERYBODY IS WELCOME.

Samuel George and Alpha Lenora Pressel Eilar

Samuel and Lenora (both resided in the Millville, IN area and were members of the Chicago Corner Church) were married on May 12, 1903 by the Reverend C.H. Holiday. The witnesses were John and Charlotte Pressel. Upon moving to Spring Street in New Castle, Indiana, the couple built thirteen (13) homes and, with help, built the First church of God. Several daughters and three (3) grand-daughters were married in the church located at Spring Street and 23rd Street. Before the church was built, church services were held in their home at 2630 East Spring Street. Four daughters, Frances, Mabel, Hazel and Dorothy (grand-daughter Annie) were born at this location. Pauline, Norman and Mildred were born at the Pressel Homestead, one and one-half miles from New Lisbon, IN. Lenora's sister, Geneva Pressel Dickerson, died in California; therefore her oldest son, Otto Gene Dickerson, was raised by Samuel and Lenora and Geneva's other children (Clyde, Charles and Kathryn Dickerson Vanlandingham) often stayed with them. Thus, the close connection to the Eilar family. For most of their lives, Samuel and Lenora owned a farm off the Brown Road, east of New Castle, IN, known as the Eilar Homeplace. Before his death at age 64 in 1937, Sam (born in Liberty Township) was a well-driller, a skilled contractor, a policeman and a Christian and community organizer. Lenora, skilled in the farming industry from birth, managed an affluent farming business. She also managed the practice of sheltering and nurturing stranded adults, and countless foster children, during her lifetime. (Opal Green Donica was a part of the family from age 14 to age 24). Lenora died in 1967, at the age of 91 and was buried beside Samuel, and their two infant daughters,

11925 Goldie Ethel and Thelma Juanita, in the Brick Cemetery near 11954

402 Hagerstown, IN. The land for the cemetery and church was donated in 1849 by Samuel and Susanna Eilar. The church now 401 known as the Nettle Creek Church of the Brethren was first the German Baptist Church. Samuel and Susanna's son Solomon 11399 was the first person buried in the cemetery.

Calendar dedication: To my beloved grandparents, my nurturing, loving aunts and uncles, my sweet, loving mother and to my sister who helps make the reunions possible. Annie Laurie Lindley (eldest grandchild of Samuel and Lenora).

Clara Frances, oldest living child of Samuel and Lenora, was born in 1909 at 2630 East Spring St. (one of the 13 homes built by her parents in that area), and celebrated her 90th birthday with a formal reception at the First Presbyterian Church in New Castle, IN, where she is a long-standing member. Upon retiring from teaching after 42 years of outstanding service and honors, Frances married Herbert Harrison Clapp (Engineer) in a storybook wedding. The wedding was featured in the Indianapolis Star newspaper in 1974. The couple had met while in college, years earlier. After their marriage, they remodeled and lived at the Eilar Homestead until 1998, and now reside in the Addison House in New Castle, IN. Frances assumed the role of matriarch of the Eilar family after her mother's death. Frances believes she was born to be a teacher. At 6 years of age she taught children's games Weir Elementary School, and at age 8 she substituted for her Sunday School teacher. Frances learned the games she taught at Weir Elementary School, from attending a one room school called Shaffer School (Possum Run). This building was located near her family's residence on Grandma Charlotta Pressel's farm 2 1/2 miles north of New Lisbon, IN. Frances' most admired teacher was 11923 Loring Eilar (Millville, IN). His expertise in English and literature made him sought after by colleges and universities. Frances holds degrees from Ball State University and the University of

Dear Tom,

18 October 1999

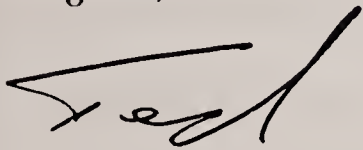

Just received your letter today and now I feel compelled to follow through and finally send off the papers I copied for you over a week ago. Actually, I'll have to make a few more as I see you have a page on George and Cecilia Williar, so I best send along what I know of that line, too. I have a different set of parents for George, but I believe my arrangement is just conjecture. From what source do you have Andrew Williar, Jr. and Anna Barbara Romer as his parents?

As you can see from my included paperwork, Christopher Columbus Williar (Uncle Lum), son of George and Cecilia, settled in Kansas near my great-great grandparents. Uncle Lum was a nephew of my great-great-grandfather, Comenius, through Comenius' older sister Cecilia. Uncle Lum and Comenius married sisters, Jane and Theodosia Shultz, respectively. Comenius and Theodosia married first. Uncle Lum courted Aunt Jane for quite some time, but Jane's mother, Elizabeth Reynolds Shultz, was opposed to the idea of Jane marrying at all - not just Lum specifically. So was Jane, for that matter. He went off and fought in the Civil War, then when the hostilities ended came back to ask for Jane's hand. She wasn't too hot on the idea, so put him off a bit. He said he'd enlist again, and she said he could come back for her when his time was over in the military, thinking he would lose interest. He didn't. When he came back he threatened suicide if she wouldn't marry him, so she acquiesced. Needless to say, there were no children. My great-aunt who just turned 96 last week remembers how Uncle Lum was the first man in Louisburg to own a car (he was quite a tinkerer and very into gadgets); she recalls riding with him once as a child when he spun through a corner too fast and almost rolled the car over, narrowly missing a train.

Hope you have fun in Thurmont; I went there myself about two years ago and found it fascinating. The former Shultz mill is still standing out near Deerfield up in the valley.

Thanks for the info -

Regards,

Ted

Tom, I'm sending you some information on Jacob Eiler (Oyler, Eyler) and his children. I found two land partitions that helped identify children of two of the Eilers – Jacob and his son-in-law George Kauffman (Cauffman) who married Margaret. I am taking up this research again after a hiatus of about 10-12 years during which time I published a book on my husband's Hutchison line, so most of this research is that old. I carry the spelling "Eiler" on my family group sheets because of the German fraktur for his granddaughter Elizabeth who married Jacob Stineman. That doesn't mean that spelling is correct, it is just what Rev. Aurandt put on the fraktur.

The first item included is the Church of the Brethren's translation of the Ship Allen's passenger list. Strassburger's translation is considerably different, and it is a toss-up which is right. I think personally Strassburger is probably closer on our surname. But the fact they show two extra Oellens may be a clue as to whether Conrad came with his wife and children alone or whether a brother or father also came. The Church of the Brethren's website is interesting. I ran off the history of the early church in America and read it last evening, as I need to have some answers as to why Conrad married in London, England, not in Germany or the Netherlands. I don't have any answers yet. I do know there was a Palantine emigration to England in 1709, but need to look up what the library has on it. It is possible when they left Germany they stopped over in London for a short time and went across the channel to the Netherlands for the next 18 years, but that needs to be researched – or they could have remained in England, but I rather doubt it.

The family group sheet for Jacob I made up from the land partition. It does not show Catherine marrying John Ling, but John Link, and I understand the G and K are often misunderstood in German by English clerks. I have also included a family group sheet for them and for Elizabeth Ling Stineman. John and Catherine's family group sheet is pretty tentative as he left no probate, nor did she – and both sets of their parents predeceased them so grandchildren don't show up as heirs in their probate and John's land records only name one or two children.

The next few pages are a small portion of Dr. Eilar's book on the family name. I am assuming you can get it on microfilm at a local LDS library. He spent 25 years trying to follow the family and could never find where Jacob died, but in researching the family where my Lings and Stinemans lived in the late 1790s, the record of the land transaction was found but it was too late for Dr. Eilar. He had passed away about 3 or 4 years earlier. Most of the family group sheets for Jacob's children are extremely incomplete.

While I have done a little bit on them, the only fairly complete ones are those for Catherine Ling and her sister Anna Maria Weddle.

I know you will have questions – I can't promise I will have answers. However, don't hesitate to ask. Maybe a cooperative research project will give us the answers.

Phyllis

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Phyllis". The first letter "P" is large and loops around the start of the name.

Passengers Who Arrived With Alexander Mack in 1729
on the ship 'ALLEN'
Submitted by Judith Cox Whipple

Begin Quote: _____

Arrival in Pennsylvania

It was not until 1729 that Mack led the Wittgenstein group on the long and dangerous ocean voyage from the Netherlands to the New World. In 1727 Mack had sold his share of the inheritance from his father-in-law, John Valentine Kling (who died in Schriesheim in 1714), while in Surhuisterveen. Neither of the two Ann Margaret Macks given on the passenger list of the Allen refers to Mack's wife, who died in September 1720, according to the entry in Alexander Mack's Bible, now preserved at Bridgewater College, Bridgewater, Virginia.

It is probable that some of those listed were not members of the Brethren group, but merely passengers on the same ship. The names have been edited in an attempt to reconstruct more accurate spellings, since the lists were written by English clerks who had great difficulty spelling German names. Although there is a less complete list with actual signatures, some of the group were illiterate and their names were also written by clerks on this list as well.

Arrival of the Allen Recorded

Minutes of the provincial council.

At the Courthouse of Philadelphia, September 15th, 1729... A List was presented of the names of Fifty nine Palatines, who with their Families, making in all about One hundred and twenty six Persons, were imported in the Ship Allen, James Craigie, Master, from Rotterdam, but last from Cowes, as by Clearance thence dated 7th of July last. THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

PHYSICS DEPARTMENT

1. The first part of the course is devoted to the study of the properties of the electron. The electron is a particle with a mass of 9.1×10^{-31} kg and a charge of -1.6×10^{-19} C. It is a fermion and obeys the Pauli exclusion principle. The electron is a constituent of all atoms and molecules. The study of the electron is one of the most important branches of physics.

2. The second part of the course is devoted to the study of the properties of the proton. The proton is a particle with a mass of 1.67×10^{-27} kg and a charge of $+1.6 \times 10^{-19}$ C. It is a fermion and obeys the Pauli exclusion principle. The proton is a constituent of all atoms and molecules. The study of the proton is one of the most important branches of physics.

3. The third part of the course is devoted to the study of the properties of the neutron. The neutron is a particle with a mass of 1.67×10^{-27} kg and a charge of 0. It is a fermion and obeys the Pauli exclusion principle. The neutron is a constituent of all atoms and molecules. The study of the neutron is one of the most important branches of physics.

4. The fourth part of the course is devoted to the study of the properties of the photon. The photon is a particle with a mass of 0 and a charge of 0. It is a boson and obeys Bose-Einstein statistics. The photon is a constituent of all atoms and molecules. The study of the photon is one of the most important branches of physics.

5. The fifth part of the course is devoted to the study of the properties of the neutrino. The neutrino is a particle with a mass of 1.67×10^{-27} kg and a charge of 0. It is a fermion and obeys the Pauli exclusion principle. The neutrino is a constituent of all atoms and molecules. The study of the neutrino is one of the most important branches of physics.

6. The sixth part of the course is devoted to the study of the properties of the gluon. The gluon is a particle with a mass of 0 and a charge of 0. It is a boson and obeys Bose-Einstein statistics. The gluon is a constituent of all atoms and molecules. The study of the gluon is one of the most important branches of physics.

7. The seventh part of the course is devoted to the study of the properties of the Higgs boson. The Higgs boson is a particle with a mass of 1.67×10^{-27} kg and a charge of 0. It is a boson and obeys Bose-Einstein statistics. The Higgs boson is a constituent of all atoms and molecules. The study of the Higgs boson is one of the most important branches of physics.

8. The eighth part of the course is devoted to the study of the properties of the graviton. The graviton is a particle with a mass of 0 and a charge of 0. It is a boson and obeys Bose-Einstein statistics. The graviton is a constituent of all atoms and molecules. The study of the graviton is one of the most important branches of physics.

9. The ninth part of the course is devoted to the study of the properties of the photon. The photon is a particle with a mass of 0 and a charge of 0. It is a boson and obeys Bose-Einstein statistics. The photon is a constituent of all atoms and molecules. The study of the photon is one of the most important branches of physics.

10. The tenth part of the course is devoted to the study of the properties of the neutrino. The neutrino is a particle with a mass of 1.67×10^{-27} kg and a charge of 0. It is a fermion and obeys the Pauli exclusion principle. The neutrino is a constituent of all atoms and molecules. The study of the neutrino is one of the most important branches of physics.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Sheriff of Bedford County Greeting
 Whereas ³⁹¹²³ John Otto who is intermarried with ³⁹¹²² Margaret one of the daughters and Coheirs of ¹²⁴⁹ George Coffman late of St. Clair township, deceased, on the seventh day of August Anno Domini 1817, presented a petition to our Judge the Orphans Court sitting forth that the said George Coffman lately died intestate seized in his demand as of free of and in a certain tract of land situate in St. Clair township in Bedford County aforesaid adjoining lands of Jacob Philips, Jacob Haisel and others containing about two hundred and fourteen acres more or less with the appurtenances, that said intestate left issue nine children, to wit, four sons Henry the eldest, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and five daughters Margaret intermarried with John Otto and who are your petitioners, Mary intermarried with William Otto which said Mary is since dead leaving issue one daughter an infant, to wit, Susannah Otto, Catharine, Susannah and Eve, whom the said Catharine, Isaac and Eve are still in their minority, that since the decease of the said intestate the said children have continued to hold the said tract of land with the appurtenances, together and undivided and have not been able to agree upon a partition thereof, And therefore praying the Court to award an Inquest to make a view of the aforesaid lands to and among the children and legal representatives of the said intestate in such manner and in such proportions as by the laws of this Commonwealth directed if such partition can be made without prejudice to or spoiling the whole thereof, and if the said premises cannot be divided to and among all the said children and representatives without prejudice to or spoiling the whole thereof, then to ascertain into how many parts the same may be divided, and how many of the said children and legal representatives may be accommodated without prejudice to or spoiling the whole thereof as aforesaid and if the said premises cannot be divided among two or more of the said children and representatives without prejudice to or spoiling the whole as aforesaid, then to value and sell the same and make return of their proceedings according to Law and the order by the said Court agreeably to the prayer of the said petitioners.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the study and the objectives of the research. It then proceeds to a literature review, followed by a description of the methodology used in the study. The results of the study are presented in the next section, followed by a discussion of the findings and their implications. The paper concludes with a summary of the main points and a list of references.

The author would like to thank the following people for their assistance and support during the course of this study: [Name], [Name], and [Name].

November Court 1817

We therefore commands you that taking with you twelve honest and lawful men of your Bailiwick you go to the land and premises aforesaid and there by their oaths or solemn affirmations in the presence of the parties aforesaid by you to be warned (if upon being warned they will be present) the aforesaid tract of land and premises with the appurtenances having respect to the true value thereof into nine equal parts you cause to be parted and divided if the same can be so parted and divided without prejudice to or spoiling the whole thereof. And one of the said equal parts unto the said Henry, one other of the said equal parts unto the said Abraham, one other of the said equal parts unto the said Isaac and one other of the said equal parts unto the said Jacob, one other of the said equal parts unto the said John Otto and Margaret his wife in right of the said Margaret, one other of the said equal parts unto the said Susannah Otto, in right of her Mother the said Mary Otto who is now deceased and one other of the said equal parts unto the said Catharine, one other of the said equal parts unto the said Susannah and one other of the said equal parts unto the said Eve, to hold to them in severalty you assign and deliver. But if the said Inquest cannot make such partition of the said tract of land and premises without prejudice to or spoiling the whole thereof, then that you cause the said Inquest to inquire whether the said tract of land and premises will conveniently accommodate two or more of the said Children and legal representatives without prejudice to or spoiling the whole thereof, and if they do so find that they ascertain how many of the said Children and representatives the same will accommodate describing each part by metes and bounds and make a just and separat valuation and appraisment thereof. But in case any such partition cannot be made of the tract of land and premises aforesaid without prejudice to or spoiling the whole thereof that then you cause the said Inquest to value and appraise the whole of the said tract of land and premises with the appurtenances undivided. And that that partition or valuation so made you distinctly and openly have before our Judges at Bedford at our Orphans Court thence to be held the first Monday of November next under your hand and seal and under the hands and seals of those by whose oaths or affirmations you shall make that partition or valuation. And have you then these things writ.

affirmations in the presence of the parties aforesaid by you to be warranted (if upon being warranted they will be present) the aforesaid tract of land and premises with the appurtenances having respect to the true value thereof into nine equal parts you caused to be parted and divided if the same can be so parted and divided without prejudice to or spoiling the whole thereof And one of the said equal parts unto the said Henry, one other of the said equal parts unto the said Abraham, one other of the said equal parts unto the said Isaac one other of the said equal parts unto the said Jacob, one other of the said equal parts unto the said John Otto and Margaret his wife in right of the said Margaret, one other of the said equal parts unto the said Susannah Otto, in right of her mother the said Mary Otto who is now deceased and one other of the said equal parts unto the said Catharine, one other of the said equal parts unto the said Susannah and one other of the said equal parts unto the said Eve, to hold to them in severalty you assign and deliver, But if the said Inquest cannot make such partition of the said tract of land and premises without prejudice to or spoiling the whole thereof, then that you cause the said Inquest to inquire whether the said tract of land and premises will conveniently accommodate two or more of the said Children and legal representatives without prejudice to or spoiling the whole thereof and if they do so find that they ascertain how many of the said Children and representatives the same will accommodate describing each part by metes and bounds and make a just and separat valuation and appraisement thereof. But in case any such partition cannot be made of the tract of land and premises aforesaid without prejudice to or spoiling the whole thereof that then you cause the said Inquest to value and appraise the whole of the said tract of land and premises with the appurtenances undivided; And that that partition or valuation so made you distinctly and openly have before our Judges at Bedford at our Orphans Court there to be held the first Monday of November next under your and seal and under the hands and seals of those by whose oaths or affirmations you shall make that partition or valuation. And have you then there this writ

He then was employed in the Gallia Furnace as clerk until it was closed. He then supplied the Thomas Iron Works with ore, but after a short time sold his ore contract and became clerk for the same company. He was engaged in the furnaces of the Hocking Valley three or four years when he resigned and took the position of general superintendent of the Nelson Furnace or Iron Works in Indiana, where he remained nearly a year. He then returned to Jackson County and bought property; built a business-house, and established a general store and lumber yard at Coalton, where he has an average sale of $40,000 a year, and carries a stock of goods worth $8,000. He was married Sept. 20, 1877, to Ellen, daughter of Rev. John Rogers, who came from Wales about 1840. They have had three children, only one living—Nellie. Annie, the eldest, died at the age of eight months, and Willard died at the age of fourteen months. Mr. Morgan is a charter member of Colonel Dove Post, No. 301, G. A. R., at Coalton, Ohio. In politics he has always been a Republican. He is a staunch Union man, and believes that the reins of Government ought to be in the hands of those who fought for it and saved it.

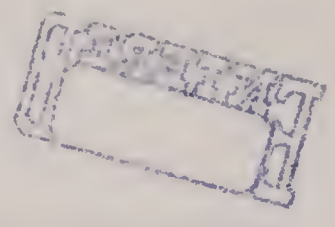

James Newport, coal operator, was born Dec. 13, 1824, in Ireland, where he received a good education, having attended school till he was sixteen years old. He was then employed most of the time till 1850 as weighmaster in a mercantile house, when he came to America. Shortly after coming he went to Virginia, but is now living in Jackson County, Ohio, where he owns forty acres of fine land which is underlaid with the best quality of Jackson Hill coal. He has been operating his own mines for a number of years. He was married in 1849 to Miss Simpson. They have had nine children—Mary (who is married and has five children), Ellen (wife of John Cline), Kate, Eliza (wife of John O'Brien), Willie, John, Simpson, Edward and Maggie.

Rev. John A. Oiler, son of E. B. and Charlotte Oiler, was born June 26, 1843, in Monroe County, Va. In 1861 he enlisted in the Southern army, and after serving for some time was taken prisoner. In 1863 he enlisted in Company D, Sixty-fourth Virginia Cavalry, and did service for the Union till the war closed. He was under General Custer and participated in all the engagements of the Shenandoah Valley, and was mustered out at Wheeling, W. Va., July 4, 1865. He was married Aug. 24, 1865, to Catherine A., daughter of James Dew, and in March, 1866, moved to Jackson County, where they have since lived. In 1883 Mr. Oiler was ordained a minister of the Free-Will Baptist church, and now has charge of that denomination at Coalton. He is a member of the I.O.O.F. fraternity at Jackson and is also Justice of the Peace.

Henry Peters, deceased, was born June 22, 1825, in Brunswick, Germany. He attended school there till he was fourteen years old, and when twenty-four years of age came to America, landing in New York, where he remained a short time. He then lived in Carroll County, Ohio, till 1853, when he moved to Jackson County. March 20, 1851, he was married to Catherine Rose, born in Harrison County, Ohio, in 1825, and daughter of Henry and Rebecca (Kent) Rose. Seven children were sent to bless this union—A. B., W. A., C. H., F. B., J. A., J. N. and C. D. Mr. Peters and wife were members of the Methodist Episcopal church for many years. At his death he owned a good farm of 280 acres, under which there is a heavy vein of coal known as Jackson Hill coal. He also owned some fine Merino sheep and was classed among the best farmers of the county. His death occurred Aug. 10, 1883, caused by a kick from a horse. His parents, August and Christina (Braschner) Peters, were natives of Germany and died in that country. Mr. Rose, father of Mrs. Peters, was born in 1796,

August Scherer
The funeral of August Scherer, who dropped dead at New Boston a few days ago, took place from St. Mary's church Friday morning and was largely attended.
Mr. Scherer's own son, Rev. Father Scherer, a Catholic priest, celebrated the Requiem mass, assisted by Rev. Fathers J. E. McGuck and F. Gloeckner. The latter preached the funeral sermon, taking as his text "A Good Tree Bringeth Forth Good Fruit and the Evil Tree Bringeth Forth Evil Fruit." Father Gloeckner paid a warm tribute to the memory of Mr. Scherer. The services at the grave were conducted by Father Scherer.
 pallbearers at the funeral were Messrs. Herman Hueb, Sr., John Burr, Leopold Walters, Jacob Vinger, Charles Steadly and Frank Keatly. Undertaker Geo. Pfeiffer had charge of the funeral, which was impressively conducted.

Johnson

Hiram Johnson, a well-known farmer of Siloam, Ky., died at his home Thursday night, succumbing to the effects of that dread malady, pneumonia, after an illness of but two weeks.

Mr. Johnson was 67 years of age and was a native of Ohio, and lived in the vicinity of Wheelersburg for many years prior to 1902, when he bought a splendid farm at Siloam.

which he has since killed.
He was married forty years ago to Mrs. Lucina Shoemaker, and together they spent many happy years. The widow, who survives, is an invalid, rendered so through a stroke of paralysis she suffered eight months ago. The following children are living: Solomon, of Peary, Oklahoma; Mrs. A. F. Moore, Peter Justice, Mrs. William Goddard, all of this city; and Mrs. Jennie Tinsler and Mrs. Lou Johnson at home.

Definite arrangements for the funeral have not been made, but it will probably be held Sunday, with burial at Wheelersburg.

Henry Wyant.

Henry Wyant, a well known resident of Stockdale, died Friday morning at 5 o'clock, after several months' illness. Bright's disease and some complications. The funeral service will be conducted Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at Pleasant Hill church by Rev. Glendennin McWright was 31 years of age.

John A. Oiler. 70, an old soldier, died Thursday night at his home in Sciotoville, his demise being caused by pneumonia, after a brief sickness.

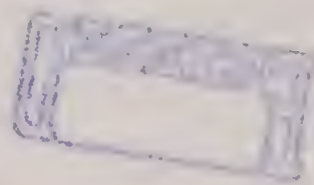

Oiler was a native of old Virginia, and had the unusual distinction of serving with both armies in the Civil war, first with the Confederates, whom he later deserted to take up the Union cause, and as a reward for his loyalty drew a pension from the government. He located at Sciotoville about fifteen years ago, and has worked about the brick plants at times.

Mr. Oiler was a brave soldier and a splendid citizen with many excellent traits. The news of his death will be received with sincere regret by a legion of friends. He leaves a widow and one son. The funeral will be held Sunday at 2:30 a. m. at the Ottoville Baptist church.

Subject: More Eiler info

Morgan,

EYØ

I've received some information about my Eiler line that came from a book listed below. This information continues expanding "sideways" the Eiler family tree Schuylkill, Pa.

24805 (+ 48805)

We shared information before about John Eiler(Johannes Eyler) of Schuylkill County, Pa. who had five children; John, Kate(Catarina ?), Betsy(Elizabeth ?), Henry and Daniel . 48783

Betsy married Frank Mellon

Kate married a Peter Strause. (I have a relative who recently met a descendant of Kate and Peter, and I hope this also turns out more information, at least about Eiler/Strause line!)

Johannes' son John was a large landowner at Schuylkill Haven and at Eiler's Hollow. He lived eighty three years. He had married Jacob Schappell's daughter Hannah, and they had these children: Mary Eiler (married John Bubeck), Maria Eiler (married Levi Reichert), Hannah Eiler (married first to John Krietzal and second to Samuel Bonberger), Emaline Eiler (married Joseph Freeman), Susan Eiler (married William Killian), Israel Eiler and Frank Eiler(married Leah Baker).

Frank Eiler was born April 13, 1840 North Manheim Township. Pa., and apparently was alive when this book was written in 1916. He married John Baker's daughter Leah and they had at least 7 children:

Harry Eiler and Clayton Eiler, both Barbers at Schuylkill Haven.
fRANK eiler was a BARBER AND MUSIC DEALER sPRING cITY, pA.
George Eiler died young
Robert Eiler was also a Barber (Landingville, PA.)
Elwood Eiler was born Nov. 24, 1861 and was a Barber until 1903, then becoming a Music Dealer in Schuylkill Haven, also leading the Band .
May Eiler married Arthur Rich of Pottsville.

Leah Baker Eiler above, died Dec. 11, 1909.

{notes Sch. Co. Biographies Vol.2}

Morgan, do you have anything additional of these Eiler's or families which might add to this tree?

I knew you would be wanted these names for your files...

Thank you for the newsletter you sent awhile back, and for mentioning me in it.

Bruce Eiler.
